AWARDS & ACCOLADES

2022 ~ 91 Points. "Cherry, violet edge. Red fruit, floral, spicy. Tasty, fruity, good acidity, long." - Guia Peñín 2023

2022 ~ "This juicy and easy drinking Monastrell is made from dry-farmed organic bush vines planted at 700-900m. Ripe raspberry, blueberry and black cherry aromas, with a hint of spice from light oak ageing. Generous brambly fruit, rounded tannins, ripe plum and spices on the palate with a rustic hint to the finish. A versatile food wine." - Decanter, Feb/2024

2020 ~ 90 Points. "Cherry, violet edge. Red fruit, floral, spicy. Tasty, fruity, good acidity, long." - Guia Peñín 2021

2020 ~ "Blackberries, plums, bark, mushrooms and sweet spices on the nose. It's medium-to full-bodied with sleek tannins. Soft and spicy. Vegan. Drink now." - James Suckling, Jan/2022

2020 ~ "Here's a great value, flavourful red wine that's packed with concentrated ripe-fruit flavours and rounded out by earthy and cedary notes. The silky-smooth texture makes for a crowd-pleasing style, with enough complexity and character to keep your senses engaged. Drink now to 2025." - Christopher Waters, The Globe and Mail, Nov/2022

OTHER INFO

Crafted by the respected Juan Gil winery in the Jumilla DO, the grapes come from more than 40-year-old vines grown at an altitude over 700 metres above sea level. Meticulously handpicked and vinified in stainless steel tanks at a temperature of 25°C, after finishing malolactic fermentation, wine was aged for 4 months into French and American oak barrels.
