Taste:	Soft and ripe tannins. Quite harmonious on the finish.
Food:	Ideal partner for grilled meats and/or mature cheeses.

AWARDS & ACCOLADES

2020 ~ "It's difficult to make a full, expressive red for under ten dollars and yet the 2020 Malbec Territorio from Cafayate achieves just that. It shows primary character, fruitiness with herb and pyrazine aromas. The intense palate and grip is usually found in more expensive price ranges. One to take a look at."
- Antonio Galloni's Vinous, Dec/2020

OTHER INFO

The grapes come from the Valles Calchaquies at 1700 meters above sea level, in the Province of Salta, in Northwest Argentina. The region is known for being among the highest vineyards in the world where it predominates a dry climate, with rainfall not exceeding 150 mm per year, and a significant dual temperature variation. Rocky and sandy soil.
