TASTING NOTES

- Colour: Deep purple.
- Aroma: The complex nose offers notes of underbrush, wet stone, blueberry, and a touch of savoury'ness.
- Taste: Medium body, compact, yet with smooth tannins and a juicy and citrusy finish.
- Food: Pairs perfectly with grilled meats such as roast rack of lamb, BBQ ribs or with a charcuterie platter.

OTHER INFO

Gil Family Estates owns about 350 hectares (approximately 865 acres) of vineyards located between 700 to 850 m above sea level. While other grapes are also grown, Monastrell (also known as Mourvèdre or Mataró) is the main variety, native to Jumilla. It boasts the largest and most important production of this grape in the world.
